War Cemetery

1 Km. Commemorating memories of the British and Indian soldiers who died during the World War II, the War Cemeteries are managed by the Commonwealth War Graves Commission. Serene and well-maintained with little stone markers and bronze plaques recording the sacrifices of those gallant soldiers.

Sagol Kangjei (Polo)
Manipur gives polo to the world. The oldest world's living polo ground is in the heart of the town. Many polo enthusiasts come to play polo in this polo ground during international polo competition held during Sangai Festival (Nov. 21-30).

Emas Market

At the heart of the city, a unique all womens' market with more than 3000 Emas (mothers) who run the stall. A place worth to see.

Loktak Lake
48 km from Imphal, the largest fresh water lake in India's North-East. From atop Sendra island, visitors get a bird's eye view of life on the lake on small islands that are actually floating biomass with which are various aspects of life of the local inhabitants.

Keibul Lamjao : 48km. The only Floating national park in the world, the Keibul Lamjao National Park located in the Loktak lake is the last natural habitation of the 'Sangai' (Rucervus eldii eldii), the dancing deer of Manipur
INA Museum : (45km). The INA museum at Moirang near Loktak lake, where the flag of the Indian National Army was first unfurled on April 14,1944 reminds the valour of the INA soldiers.

Moreh : 110 km. This border town gives unique opportunity for experiencing the different cultures, lifestyles of the Myanmar through the neighbouring border town, Tamu which is only 5 km away across the border.

VII PAICON 2019 Nov. - 23 & 24

Venue : The Classic Hotel, North AOC, Imphal

Manipur, a little shangrila located in a lush green corner of North-East India, with an oval shaped valley at the center surrounded by nine ranges of bluish-green hills, with folklore, myths, legends, dance, indigenous games and martial arts and exotic handlooms and hand-crafts is known as 'Switzerland of the North East'. The Polo is originated in Manipur and the oldest living Polo ground is in the heart of the Imphal City.

The Loktak lake, located 48 km. From Imphal is the largest fresh water lake in India's North-East with Sendra Island and the only floating National Park in the world, The Keibul Lamjao National Park which is the only inhabitation place of the endangered broad antlered deer.

Every year there is Sangai Festival from Nov. 21 to 30 and international polo competition is played in the world's oldest living polo ground. During this period rooms in hotels are prebooked and you are requested to book early in the conference venue i.e. the Classic Hotel. And those who book online will be given a little discount by the hotel.

You will enjoy the scientific extravaganza with rich culture and tradition of Manipur with its special cuisine.

The climate of Manipur during end of Nov. is cool to warm needing light woolen cloths.
